II.

That the Members shall dine together Eight Times a year, on the first TUESDAY in every Month, except July, August, September, and October.

III.

That every Candidate for Admission into this Club, shall be proposed by one Member, and seconded by another; and the name, profession, and place of abode of such Candidate, shall be entered in a book by the Secretary; and at the next meeting of the Club, he shall be ballotted for. No smaller number than three Negatives shall shall in any case reject any person proposed.—

That unless Thirty Members shall be present, the ballot shall not take place ; and if more than Thirty be present, the negatives shall be in the proportion of one in every ten present at the ballot.

IV.

That there shall be Six Stewards for each dinner, who shall appoint a President, and also Stewards to succeed them at the ensuing meeting.

V.

That JOHN GREGORY, Esq. be Treasurer to the Club for the first year ; and Mr. EDWARD HALL, Secretary.

VI.

That at the Meeting in the Month of May,
in each year, a Treasurer and Secretary shall be appointed, by ballot, for the ensuing year,
and at the next Meeting, the former Treasurer shall adjust his accounts and pay the balance (if any) into the hands of his successor.

VII.

That the Meeting, Now constituting the Club, and every person hereafter becoming a Mem-

Member thereof, shall on admission, pay in to the hands of the Treasurer, Two Pounds, Twelve Shillings and Six-pence, as his subscription, for the purpose of defraying the expences of the several meetings; the said subscription to be collected annually, under such penalties on default of payment, as shall hereafter be adopted by the Club.

VIII.

That upon a requisition in writing subscribed by seven members at least, to the President, stating the conduct of any member to have been inconsistent with the principles he engaged to support on entering into this Club, the Secretary shall send to the accused Member, a copy of the charge exhibited against him, together with a summons requiring his attendance at the next meeting, to answer it; and shall also issue special summons to all the members to attend at the same time, to take into consideration such charges, and upon the same being discussed in case the majority of members present shall, by ballot, agree to exclude the accused member, he shall be expelled accordingly.

IX. That

IX.
